

Dear Camper:

Greetings! You are now at the age where you can become a CILT at CCC! Please find enclosed the Course Description and other pertinent information for the CILT (Camper in Leadership Training) Program held at Cascade Camp Cedarbrook. A camper registration form is needed to be completed as well and you will find this enclosed.

The Camper in Leadership Training (CILT) program provides a unique education and practical challenge for high school age campers with leadership potential. Participants will have opportunities to increase their skills and abilities, deepen their knowledge and application of Scripture, and gain a variety of leadership experiences. CILT trains you for future leadership and service in your church, camp(s), and community.

The CILT course is a two-step program -- CILT I and CILT II -- usually consisting of one week plus 2-4 out of camp Saturday groups for boys, and two weeks at camp for girls, during each of two consecutive summers, plus assignments to complete during the school year between summers.

Under adult supervision, CILTs gain practical experience by working with younger campers -- leading songfests, games, Bible studies, and evening programs; helping with cookouts; teaching camp skills; and assisting in camp functions.

CILTs also choose camp activity skills as specialties, progressing through achievements to high levels of proficiency, which often include certification from national organizations. CILTs learn to demonstrate and teach their specialty skills to younger campers.
